

have shown that people's rights cannot be forever trampled upon or denied, and that no place is impregnable, especially when deprivation and injustice are the prime drivers of violent response. 1897 expedition was an injustice that must and will be redressed.

Postscript: 'Dutch returns severed head of Ghanaian King after 171 years.' Nigerian Tribune, Friday 24 July, 2009, p.52.